

Natura would like to invite you to a series of 3 seminars presented by

DR DAVID LILLEY

Each ½ day seminar will be divided into a clinical and a theoretical component.

The clinical component of the seminars will focus on the respiratory tract:

- Seminar 1: Upper respiratory tract infections – colds and influenza, sore throats and tonsillitis, ear infections and sinusitis
- Seminar 2: Lower respiratory tract infections – coughs, bronchitis and pneumonia
- Seminar 3: Chronic respiratory tract condition – allergic rhinitis, asthma, chronic bronchitis and obstructive airway disease

The content of the theory seminars will constitute an ongoing story, which will be divided into chapters. The theoretical sections will follow this sequence over 3 seminars:

- The Cosmos and the immortal soul
- The archetype
- The topography of the psyche: Freud and Jung
- The development of the ego-self
- The nine archetypes of the soul
- The vital force and the chakra energy system
- Myths, symbols, doctrine of signatures and dream analysis
- Stellar alchemy: the axial archetypes
- Planetary evolution of key archetypes

The cost for the seminars will be as follows:

- R150 for each individual seminar
- R300 if you book for all 3 seminars at once
- Please see the attached sheet for information on how to reserve your seat!

Please RSVP as soon as possible to secure your booking, and for catering purposes.

Biography of Dr David Lilley:

David Lilley studied medicine at Pretoria University and qualified in 1962. He studied homeopathy at the Royal London Homeopathic Hospital and Osteopathy at the London College of Osteopathy. In 1967, he joined his father, William Henry Lilley, in homeopathic practice in Pretoria. He founded the South African Faculty of Homeopathy for the homeopathic training of medical doctors in 1994 and was its Dean until 2012. In 2007, David retired from his practice in Pretoria in order to devote his time to homeopathic lecturing and writing and conducting a small, select practice in Cape Town. He lectures internationally and his particular interest is in linking the study of the homeopathic Materia Medica to Jungian analytical psychology, symbolism, archetypology, mythology, chakra science and the science of colour.
